1874-1876-Comparison of Votes. In the municipal election of 1874, when Busby conlested with Loague for the mayoralty, the number of votes reg-istered was 10 519, of whom 7201 were whites, and 3318 colored. Of these 7101 were cast for the two candidates, of which number Busby received 3213, and Loague 3888, the majority of the latter being 675. Contrast these figures with those furnished by the vote of yesterday, and the reader will see at once that Losgue's defeat is due to at least 1500 were no less astonished than dengnico.

THE State national bank's new board of directors has made some changes in the official corps of that institution, by sppointing A. Woodruff president, A. D. Gwynn vice-president, and A. J. Hayes cashier. The selection is a popular one. The gentlemen selected stand high in the e-teem of all who know them. Mr. Woodruff has been highly appreciated in Memphis for many years, for his public spirit and business qualifications. Mr. Gwynn, who has the modesty that usually accompanies merit, is, on that account, less known; he is generous and courteous—exactly one of the kind of men we could do better if we had more
